

I am always very happy and excited when given the opportunity to speak the minds of my fellow student especially when it comes to voice against racism.

I am very confident and outspoken

I believe no one should be bullied or segregated in any form because of the colour of his or her skin we are all equal be it Asian, Arab, Carribean European or African.

We are all human and equal

Vote for me, i speak black student language.

Olawale Awoyinka (Wale)