

“Through being a course rep I have learnt skills that I will be able to take into my future career, including effective communication in meetings and problem solving.

My proudest course rep moment was representing ARU students at Parliament to celebrate Breaking with Tradition – Universities at 21. I felt very proud of our University!”

Sophie May, 1st Year BA (Hons) Writing and English Literature Course Rep

