	None DL explained the terms of reference of the meeting. The membership was responsible for campaigning and implementing policy from Student Council. The meeting was also an opportunity for the full time officers to update part time reps with their current activities and for part time reps to ask questions of the full time officers. He went on to explain that the Executive committee was a smaller committee than Student Council, but as the current full committee was 65 it was hoped to reduce the size of the Executive further during the next twelve months.
